1978 – 2008

30 years ago

The Clash, X-Ray Spex, Steel Pulse and Tom Robinson performed together in Victoria Park, East London.

But this was no ordinary concert. It was a carnival hosted by Rock Against Racism and the Anti Nazi League. Around 100,000 people came together that day to say no to the Nazi National Front – and yes to black, white and Asian unity.

Love Music Hate Racism is the child of Rock Against Racism.

30 years on, a new generation of musicians and DJs are coming together to celebrate the historic Carnival along with some of the artists involved first time round.

But there is another, more important, reason to join us at the LMHR Carnival 2008. It's time to make a stand against the fascists who are once again polluting our streets and neighbourhoods.

The message of Carnival 2008 is simple – Love Music Hate Racism.
